

Safer Internet Day (11 February 2014)

Kent Libraries, Registration & Archives is supporting the day by promoting resources aimed at encouraging safer internet use.

A new book for younger children explains in story form why posting unkind photos / messages online is a bad idea. Digiduck's Big Decision will be available in all Kent Libraries, and can be borrowed for use in class.

The Kidsmart website has lots of information on staying safe online, including the Smart Rules.

Other resources and websites are available:

<http://www.saferinternet.org.uk/>

<http://www.parentport.org.uk/>

<http://www.thinkyouknow.co.uk/>

We would appreciate your help in spreading the word about eSafety.

Please contact your local library if you have any questions, or need further information.